My Share - Best of 2008

Overview

Was 2008 a good year for you? Probably everyone would give a mixed answer to that question! Hamamatsu JALT has had a My Share for the past three years in December - giving language teachers in the Hamamatsu area a chance to briefly talk about an idea or an experience they had over this last year, which they feel was successful or impressionable.

Usually we have speakers from out of town, so this is a chance to hear from our own, including you! Everyone is invited to speak - Please come and share.

Most presentations are ideas, but we also encourage experiences - for example an experience you had of a change or break-through in your teaching or in your relationships with students. Listening to each other can give us new ideas for our own teaching, and help us get to know each other better - strengthening the support we can give to each other as language educators and as friends.

And after this meeting, all of you are invited to join us for a year-end Christmas party, to be held at a venue we will announce soon. Let's finish off 2008 with a bang! We look forward to hearing from you!
